

Key dates for Blas 2024

Delivery Dates & Labels

Please note that specific categories have specific delivery dates and locations tied to that categories tasting schedule.

You will find the specific details of your entry delivery date for judging in your entry confirmation email.

You can also find the full list of delivery dates and locations here

When preparing your entry for delivery we ask that you use the templates below as follows...

- Use the template specific for your delivery date and location
- Clearly include the producer details – contact name and company name
- Clearly include your entry number and product name
- If you have multiple entries due on the same date you can use on delivery label and note all together
- If you have any entries which are due on a specific date and you will not be sending please note this on the delivery label.
- Please note for multiple entries - should you have more than 1 delivery date please contact the Blas team to check if one delivery date may be arranged: info@irishfoodawards.com
This must be done well in advance

Checklist...

- Please note products should be delivered as they are presented in their packaging to the customer. The Blas na hÉireann team will unpack and prepare for blind tasting
- Please complete the attached delivery form and include with your delivery
- 3 samples of each product entered are required (In the case where your product is over 1 kilo in weight, please deliver 2 samples only)
- Be sure to include your entry number clearly on each sample - i.e. 8.b.24. 24737
- Best Before date must be included with all deliveries
- All chilled products should arrive at the correct temperature for storage and will be checked on delivery
- All products should be delivered with maximum shelf life
- Any products which do not adhere to the delivery terms or which are not delivered on time may be disqualified from the competition
